

Samuel Joyce

Barrister

Practice Areas:

Criminal, Appeals, Public/Administrative, Industrial/Employment, Inquests/inquiries, Environment and Planning, Alternative Dispute Resolution

Year Admitted to Practice:

2011 (NSW) 2016 (SA)

Qualifications:

Master of Laws, University of Sydney

Bachelor of Laws, Honours, University of Adelaide

Bachelor of Commerce, University of Adelaide

Bachelor of Arts, University of Adelaide

Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice, Australian National University

Experience conducting significant matters:

ICAC inquiry into Oakden Older Persons Mental Health Facility;

H v Commissioner of Police [2016] SADC 64

Inquest into the death of Kenneth Ken (2019)

Colclasure v Police Review Tribunal [2018] SASC 123

ICAC Inquiry into SA Police Recruit 313

Inquest into the Death of Joshua Stachor (2021)

Court of Appeal and High Court

Junior Counsel (to Marie Shaw QC then Angus Redford) in Magro v The Queen – drug trafficking appeal against conviction in Court of Appeal judgment not yet published (February 2022)

Junior Counsel (to Marie Shaw QC and Ben Doyle SC) in Bell v The Queen – High Court of Australia (March 2022) (Transcript attached)

Junior Counsel (to Scott Henchcliffe QC) l in Questions of Law Reserved on the Acquittal of Hayden Sansbury - Questions of Law Reserved for the Court of Appeal – judgment not yet published (March 2022)

Junior Counsel (to Marie Shaw QC) l in Trussell v The Queen - Murder appeal against conviction – judgment not yet published (April 2022)